

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1894.

ONE CENT.

Henry Dinger and family are preparing to move to Newport.

The Ben Fleming Nine walloped the Charles Purnell Nine by a score of 8 to 4.

William F. Davis, a wealthy farmer of Boyle county, died suddenly of paralysis.

A movement is on foot in Lexington to build a $20,000 hospital and home for disabled Confederate veterans.

M. R. Gillmore is putting down a few stone pavements in front of Holt Richeson's grocery.

Fannie Bush talked too much, at least Judge Wadsworth thought she talked $3 worth too much.

The funeral of the late John A. Shew will take place from St. Patrick's Church at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Everybody admires beautiful hair, and everyone may possess it, by using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Keeps the hair soft, pliant and glossy.

John Goodpastor and Miss Nannie Warren both of Bath county, were married at the Grandview Hotel Monday by Judge Plaster.

Clark Gilher, John Nelson and Reuben Evans looked upon the bear when it was cool and foamy, and Judge Wadsworth charged them $3 and costs per look.

Messrs. Thos. W. Luford, John Bowman and Wm. Bowman of Tollesboro, pupils of Prof. Kaye, were successful applicants for teachers' (county) certificates at Vanceburg.

Lewis Flanigan, a well known horseman of Ripley, who had many friends here, died a few days since near Portersmouth. His remains were buried at Ripley with Masonic honors.

Dudley Carter, Harvey Fields, Ben Brooks and Tom Vance, a quartet of colored car artists from Maysville, were each fined $50 and costs by Squire Grant. They are holding down berths in Castle Kirk.

The quarterly report of the Bank of Maysville, printed elsewhere, shows a surplus fund of $11,230, undeposited profits $4,057.86, and deposits subject to check $361,333.99. This is one of Maysville's solid institutions.

Effective June 24th trains No. 1, 2, 3 and 4 will run every day in the week except that No. 1 will leave Frankfort at 8:15 a.m., Georgetown 9:32 and arrive at Paris 9:40 on Sundays. Round trip tickets, good for the day, will be sold at very low rates.

Commencing Sunday, June 24th, the C. and O. will sell every Sunday round trip tickets to Cincinnati at $1.25. Tickets good going on No. 17, 9:10 a.m., and good returning on No. 4, 9 p.m. See the National game on the 24th, Cincinnati vs. Louisville.

In behalf of Mrs. S. Washburn I wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors who so nobly came to her support in her late bereavement; also to the insurance company for its promptness in paying the on the insurance policy held by her on the life of her son. — J. M. Scott.

Harry Frederick and Miss Mary Lingenseler, both of this city, were married at the Parsonage of St. Patrick's Church yesterday, the Rev. Father J. B. Glorieux officiating. The groom is of the firm of Frederick & Acker, and the bride is a daughter of George Lingenseler, a prosperous farmer of the country.

Three young girls, Matie Burns, Della Farris and Lizzie Moran, went to a wake over the body of Mrs. Mary Snyder Saturday night at Louisville. There they became very ill and their condition is now serious. There is a theory that they were poisoned by the disinfector used, but the physician disbelieves this.

Thomas W. Smith, one of the most worth men in the employ of the Western and Southern Life Insurance Company, has been promoted to an Assistant Superintendent, with headquarters at Covington. He left yesterday for his new field of labor. This is a promotion that is deserved, and we congratulate the company in securing such a valuable man.

In New York Rev. Dr. John B. Paxton paid a fine of $10 for neglecting to record the certificate of the marriage of Congressmen W. C. P. Brackinridge and Mrs. Wing, which he celebrated in April, 1868.

The member of the Prohibition Party in this county has received official notice of the Congressional Convention, to be held at Carlisle tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for Congress for this District.

Henry Dinger and family are preparing to move to Newport.

ARE KNOCKED OUT

That's What Occurred to Our Ballists at Paris.

Got it in the neck! Well, Mayville can't win always.

A team of our crack baseballists went up to Paris yesterday and tickled the Bourbons with disastrous effect.

They weren't even in the edge of it. In fact "our boys" were so badly wounded in yesterday's game that it was only by accident that their friends here found out that the score stood 4 to 8 against them.

They will play another game today when they hope to do better—or worse.

At the home of Ben Davis, colored, on the farm of W. W. Thompson near Mt. Sterling, a negro festival was given Saturday night. A fight occurred, and George Jett, one of the most industrious negroes in Montgomery county, was found dead. He was shot six times and stabbed once. James Holley, George and Hays Scott and Bob Black, all colored, have been arrested for the crime.

Resolution of Respect

Of the Elwood League, to the memory of Mr. Fannie E. Cady.

WHEREAS, One of our charter members, Mrs. Fannie E. Cady, has answered the call. "The Master hath need of thee, come up higher."

WHEREAS, we recognize the hand of Providence in this, our sore loss, so we bow in humble submission to the Divine will, and thank him for the life and soul of our departed sister. May our lives be made more perfect by her example.

Resolved, That we deeply mourn her loss, and that the Elwood League has lost one of its most efficient members, an earnest advocate in every good cause.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to her husband, mother, father, sister and brothers and other relatives, and command them to "Ho! Who doeth all things well," and whose grace is sufficient for every emergency of life.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the record book of the League and presented to both city papers for publication.

Dr. John A. Head has removed his office and residence and can now be found at the residence, Northwest corner of Third and Sutton, formerly occupied by Mrs. A. Finch.

Dr. John A. Head.

Mr. Tolle got back at him with one of his "dukes" when the prisoner got his thumb in his mouth and "chawed" it terribly.

With this the parties were separated, and they are likely to remain so for the next few months at least.

Allensworth is a veritable giant and is said to be a bad mā from Bitter Creek.

Mr. Tolle is a man about the average stature and has the reputation of a quiet, peaceable citizen.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note so that we can let them know.

Hon. Thomas H. Paynter has returned to Washington City.

Mrs. Charles Ellis is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bradford at Covington.

Mrs. A. F. Respert of Frankfort is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Watson of this city.

Mrs. D. Norris of Germantown is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Fraze of West Fourth street.

Jacob Thomas, Tex Lanigan's valued correspondent at Mt. Gilead, is the city yesterday.

Hon. Elias Hord of Chicago is visiting his sister, Mrs. Colonel J. B. Noyes, and other relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Ranson have returned from Central Kentucky and are now "at home" for the summer.

Clothes Joseph F. Ferri, Cashier of Marshall, Finch & Co.'s Bank, was a recent visitor at the Fourth National Bank, Cincinnati Saturday after a round of gave-some, being entertained by Mrs. Speakerman, Mrs. D. C. Culberson, Mrs. J. W. Carpenter and Mrs. Charlie B. Wing.

Thomas Bailey of Mechanicsburg, Ohio, Mullins of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. John Cogan of Maysville, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tannies of Vancoville and Mr. John Conroy and daughter Maggie of Mt. Gilead, have come to attend the funeral of the late John M. Gandy, Jr., this afternoon.

John Bailey of Mechanicsburg, Ohio, Mullins of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. John Cogan of Maysville, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tannies of Vancoville and Mr. John Conroy and daughter Maggie of Mt. Gilead, have come to attend the funeral of the late John M. Gandy, Jr., this afternoon.

SUDDENLY CALLED

Squire Weaver Drops Dead at His Home at Minerva.

He was in Maysville Monday; Tuesday evening he ate a hearty supper.

And a few moments later he was cold dead.

O. N. Weaver was one of the best known men in Mason county.

He came here from Northern Ohio many years ago, locating at Minerva, where he married a daughter of David Frazer.

His wife and two grown children, Mrs. Biggers and Frazee Weaver, survive.

Without any previous word of complaint as to his health, Mr. Weaver ate a hearty supper with his family Tuesday evening.

After supper, in the best of spirits, he set about placing some screen doors at his house, when, without a moment's warning, he dropped dead.

Mr. Weaver possessed the confidence and esteem of his neighbors, and for more than a quarter of a century he had been continuously chosen as a Justice of the Peace from his District.

Squire Weaver was a man of strong convictions, yet no one dared venture the statement that he was ever accused by an impure motive.

It affords the writer pleasure to pay him the tribute due a good citizen and an honest man, and while lamenting his death to lay this humble wreath upon the cross which covers his mortal heart.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning, and the interment will be at Dover, where the remains will arrive sometime between 10 and 11 o'clock.

Prayer meeting this evening at the Central Presbyterian Church. Everybody invited and made welcome.

James Cullen and John Bode having bought out the barber shop of Henry Dinger on Market street they will fit up, and their friends and former patrons are invited to call and give them a trial.

Two mysterious strangers dug up some supposed valuables on the Caldwell farm near Danville and fled the scene. Think it was gold left by some Confederate paymaster in retreat from the battle of Perryville.

Mr. Tolle.

At the noon hour yesterday, when Allensworth was being escorted to jail for the purpose of discussing Bob Kirk's menu, he met Mr. Tolle, the prosecutor of the charge against him.

The dickey bird which gives THE LEDGER information says that the prisoner opened the ball by charging Tolle with having sworn to a two ton lie against him.

This Tolle denied, and he punctuated his denial so that Allensworth could understand it, although he swore from the stand that he could neither read nor write.

Well, what did Allensworth do but haul off and hit Tolle a powerful blow on the nose, cutting the member badly.

Mr. Tolle got back at him with one of his "dukes" when the prisoner got his thumb in his mouth and "chawed" it terribly.

With this the parties were separated, and they are likely to remain so for the next few months at least.

Allensworth is a veritable giant and is said to be a bad mā from Bitter Creek.

Mr. Tolle is a man about the average stature and has the reputation of a quiet, peaceable citizen.

For more than four months they have been guests of Jaller Kirk.

Yesterday they were arraigned before Judge Harbeson, and after a patient hearing a Jury of their peers decided to let Gandy go, but that Allensworth should remain five months longer at Castle Kirk.

As so he too, is again registered at the Hotel de Kirk.

If Allensworth had been acquitted supporters were here for his arrest, too, on other charges.

Logan will probably have his trial on the new charge during the present term of court.

And so the way of the skiff-stealer is hard.

A rainbow at night is a phenomenon seen by a number of Parsons Sunday night, about half past nine o'clock, after a rain storm.—Bourbon News.

What sort of whisky have you up there, anyway?

NARROW ESCAPE.

Fire Discovered on the Long Trestle West of Limestone.

About half past 11 o'clock last night some belated citizens—who had probably been attending a young man's prayer-meeting—made a discovery that may have been instrumental in saving many lives and much property.

The long trestle of the C. and O. which extends across the bottom from the foot of Limestone street to Bridge street was found to be on fire about midway between the points named.

Word was sent to the railroad folks and soon a number of men were sent to the place.

It required several buckets of water to extinguish the fire.

Two or three crosses had been burning and the fire had extended to the strings.

It is thought the cause was coals dropped from the firebox of an engine.

As it is the loss is incalculable.

But had the fire continued there is no telling what the result might have been.

HE HIT AND HE BIT

Milo Allensworth Caroms on John F. P. Tolle's Nose.

He hit him on the nose, And he "chawed" his thumb!

The trial of Milo Allensworth for stealing John Tolle's skiff bred bad blood on the part of the defendant.

At the noon hour yesterday, when Allensworth was being escorted to jail for the purpose of discussing Bob Kirk's menu, he met Mr. Tolle, the prosecutor of the charge against him.

The dickey bird which gives THE LEDGER information says that the prisoner opened the ball by charging Tolle with having sworn to a two-ton lie against him.

This Tolle denied, and he punctuated his denial so that Allensworth could understand it, although he swore from the stand that he could neither read nor write.

Well, what did Allensworth do but haul off and hit Tolle a powerful blow on the nose, cutting the member badly.

Mr. Tolle got back at him with one of his "dukes" when the prisoner got his thumb in his mouth and "chawed" it terribly.

With this the parties were separated, and they are likely to remain so for the next few months at least.

Allensworth is a veritable giant and is said to be a bad mā from Bitter Creek.

Mr. Tolle is a man about the average stature and has the reputation of a quiet, peaceable citizen.

FOR FIVE MONTHS

Will Milo Allensworth Repose in Castle Kirk.

The way of the skiff-stealer is hard. In January last John F. P. Tolle of this city lost a skiff.

After a long and tedious search he located it on the shanty-boat of Milo Allensworth of Ironon.

In February Allensworth, John Logan and another man were arrested by the authorities of Greenup county, charged with its theft.

At an examining trial at Greenup the third party was dismissed, Allensworth and Logan being sent here for further hearing.

For more than four months they have been guests of Jaller Kirk.

Yesterday they were arraigned before Judge Harbeson, and after a patient hearing a Jury of their peers decided to let Gandy go, but that Allensworth should remain five months longer at Castle Kirk.

As so he too, is again registered at the Hotel de Kirk.

Logan will probably have his trial on the new charge during the present term of court.

And so the way of the skiff-stealer is hard.

For the sake of Jaller Kirk.

At the Close of Business on the 18th Day of June, 1894.

INVESTIGATION.

New York Brokers Refuse to Answer the Questions

Of Sugar Investigation Committee Regarding Senators' Speculation.

Broker Silsby Told the Committee He Meant to Criminally Prosecute, Which New Feature Interested the Committee Much.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—A new feature was injected into the sugar investigation Tuesday through Geo. W. Silsby, who works for Co. B, bankers and brokers.

In Washington, Mr. Silsby's office that Geo. Banson, son of Senator Banson, and Capt. Barnes, Senator Banson's messenger, made the small speculations that caused the rumor that the senator was大道上。 Mr. Silsby said he had been asked if any speculators and speculated in sugar stock through his office, but he said he was unwilling to answer on that point before he could consult his attorney, Maj. How Butterworth.

Mr. Silsby told the committee that there was another matter involved in the case which also interested him from answering at this time. He said he meant a criminal prosecution, and this new feature interested the committee exceedingly. Mr. Silsby explained that the stock share of which the New York sugar planter had been stolen from one of his branch offices, together with orders for stock signed by some of his customers. The feature was so interesting to the committee that most of Mr. Silsby's examination was taken up in answering questions about it.

KNOCKED OUT.

Ohio Supreme Court Declares the Semi-monthly Pay Roll Law Unconstitutional.

COLUMBUS, O., June 20.—The semi-monthly pay law was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court Tuesday.

The Lake Erie Iron Co., a Cleveland corporation, was indicted for refusing to comply with the provisions of the law of April 14, 1888, as amended March 12, 1890, which required employers to pay in money on demand on a bank located not more than eight miles from the place where the labor was performed twice in each month. Counsel for the Lake Erie Iron Co. claimed that the law was unconstitutional, in that it interfered with the right of contract, and that the right to contract, and by prescribing the mode and time of payment left no option to the parties making contracts of employment, and made money in any other manner than that prescribed in the act a criminal offense.

Finally the bankers adjourned with the understanding that they would not prosecute, and that their institutions would voluntarily present further drafts on the government reserve to the extent of $15,000,000, and furnish foreign shippers with gold to that amount.

MORANBURG.
Miss Kate Mayhugh visited Mrs. William Marsh last week.

A good rain would be thankfully received by our farmers here.

Miss Stela White of Mayville is visiting relatives near here.

Miss Fannie Hawley spent a few days with Miss Anna Martin last week.

Miss Nellie Hanley of Mayville spent Sunday with the Misses McHugh.

The wife of Thomas Strough pre-sented him with another diamond ring.

Mr. Osborne is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Shatley, at Mayville.

William Stevens and wife of Bur-tonville visited their nephew, Mr. Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens.

Corn and tobacco are suffering, gardens drying, cisterns dry, pastures getting short, and all together the farmers are very much disengaged.

Miss Sally Lovick, Jessie Kerr, Carrie Campbell, Miss Robinson, Sadie McNutt, Mrs. N. Richardson, John M. Richardson, James Pigg and Willie Robinson attended the District Conference at Washington Wednesday.

MET GILEAD.

R. A. Carr of Mayville passed through our little village Tuesday.

Captain William Roe of Orangefield was in our midst Thursday.

Mrs. Amy Goddard of Upper Oakwood was here Saturday morning.

Frank Hopper and wife visited relatives near Flemingsburg last week.

Our friend Robert Moody of Recto-ville was here Saturday business.

Colonel J. D. Beckett and William Garber were here Saturday.

Miss Amy Goldard will teach the Upper Oakwood School the coming session.

Addison White of Bernard was calling on friends in this vicinity Sunday morning.

Several of our people attended the October 5th Day exercises at Orangefield Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Parker and her friend, Miss Grant of Lane, Kan., are visiting friends at Tollesboro.

Joseph D. Bramel and Miss Lida M. Bramel are calling on friends at Grainsboro Sunday.

Will Campbell of Aberdeen is prizing tobacco for Colonel J. D. Beckett, Upper Oakwood vicinity.

Reva Longton and Manafort began a series of calls at Upper Oakwood Schoolhouse Monday night.

John W. Jordan, our blacksmith, will be "right in the push" when the new blacksmith shop is completed.

Miss Lula Bradley returned from Cran-ton Saturday, who had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hoffman.

Gus C. Lee of Washington was in this vicinity last week selling an electric battery to cure his disease, so he says.

Dr. Harry D. Tolle of Recto-ville spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. Bateman, Noxay Hill neighborhood.

Harriett Hawley of near Flemingsburg was the guest of A. D. Tolle's family last week.

Charlie Herbst of near Recto-ville is very low with consumption at this writing. No hopes are entertained for his recovery.

F. C. Meers and J. C. Safford, of Peabody, were here last week soliciting orders for the Hoover & Gaines Nursery Co., Dayton, O.

J. Luther Markwell of Mt. Carmel has the hauling of Colonel J. D. Beckett's tobecos. There are about seventy-five houses in all.

Several of our people attended the Methodist revival at Orangefield. Revs. H. C. Price and F. E. Bodger are conducting the services.

Charles H. Farrow is thinking of taking a lot of horses to Cartersville to Carter and Hopper to conduct a service for catfish. Success to you, Charlie.

There is a gentleman in this village who thinks that laziness should not be rewarded, especially these good old times. We think most everyone will agree with you. Be sure and set the example for us.

Ladies, I have just received a new line of Belts and Buckles of the newest designs. I will make special low prices on them. My stock of Silver Spoons is too large, and to reduce the stock I have decided to make very low prices on them. P. J. Murphy, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

Are you insured? If not, now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is almost certain to be needed and should be procured at once. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. Parker, Druggist.

If you need spectacles or eye glasses, don't have them fitted in the old haphazard way by any one who may have them for sale. Consult us. We examine your eyes scientifically and make the glasses to fit. We can give you the names of hundreds from our prescription book who have been successfully fitted by our method who never had glasses until this before. Our glasses save satisfaction in every case, and make no charge for examination. Bellenger, Jewelers.

Where to Inquire.

Persons desirous of joining the A. P. A., or those interested in the purposes of the Order, will please address Box 483, Mayville, Ky.

A. P. A. MANUAL This fully compiled pocket handbook of the American Protective Association is suspended by a string from the top of the page. The Manual contains a wealth of information relating to the A. P. A., together with other matter pertinent to the Order. It is a convenient book to be carried in your pocket paper, presenting an excellent record of the Order. Any member or officer should carry one of these little books in his pocket for reference. The Manual will be sent on request in postage paid to the Secretary. Agents wanted.
